

Answers:

1. B, D, and E are rectangles since all the angles in these shapes are right angles and the opposite sides are parallel and congruent.
2. B, C, D, and E are parallelograms since the opposite sides in the shapes are parallel and congruent.
3. D is a rhombus because all four sides are congruent.